RN
H D
P

Peace Dialogue is a non-religious, non-political organization, which was founded in 2009 in Armenia. The organization unites experienced human rights and peace activists from Eastern Partnership countries, Russia and Europe in order to encourage the active participation of the civil society actors in processes of democratization and peaceful resolution of conflicts. Peace Dialogue works in three main directions: strengthening of respect towards human rights and democratic values, peace movement and peace culture, development and strengthening of democratic institutions.