

The Nonviolent Education and Research Center is a non-profit, independent entity. The Center does research, generates reference resources and materials, and organizes seminars and workshops with the purpose of spreading a non-violent culture and implementation of human rights and justice. Its vision is to contribute to the opposition of the structural formation of violence, and all kind of discrimination and oppression, including gender, sexual identity and militarism with means that do not include any violence. Furthermore it aims to contribute to the wide scale distribution of these non-violent means, and to make it possible for these methods to become an alternative tool in all walks of life in as well as to realize a non-authoritarian, non-exploitive society where human rights and social justice are normalized.
